Lot No. 2. to go with lot No. 1 Begins at a Corner of Land purchased from this tract by Samuel Hutchison and in the line of the Original patent, thence with said Hutchisons lines to his Corner Corner to Charles Tuleys lease on Cub Run, thence with said Tuleys lines to a Stake Corner of lot No. 2, thence with the Lines of said lot. So 55¾ east to two Marked persimmon trees So 84. E 143 poles to a Stake and pile of Stones So 17½ W. 119¾ poles to a Mark on J. L. Lees fence, thence leaving lot No. 2, N 80° W 119 poles to Several Marked buches in the line of the patent thence with the said line to the Beginning Containing 382½ acres more or less. which together with lot No. 1. Makes 1626½ acres, reference being had to the plat annexed.

The land in the possession of Charles Tuley being Venerable forever We Cannot devise any plan of Division in our opinions, So equitable, as that of each of the parties receiving annually half of the Rent, two tickets being placed in a hat one numbered 1 & 3 and the other numbered 2 agreeably to the lots of land and Mr. Charles C. Stuart only present, he drew the ticket No. 2. of Corner Lot No 1 & 3 fell to Mr. George L. Turberville

Jno. C. Hunter,
Joshua Hutchison
David Wilson Scott

At a Court held for Fairfax County the 20th. June 1821—

George L. Turberville an Infant. by William Moffett his next friend and Guardian Compet against

Chas. C. Stuart and Cornelia his Wife Defts

In Chancery

This Cause Coming on to be finally heard by Consent of the parties on the Bill and the Report of the Commissioners appointed